

Ethical Leadership Day

Thursday, March 29, 2018

University of North Georgia-Dahlonega Campus

NOTE: Students are asked to wear appropriate/comfortable shoes for the walking campus tour, as well as appropriate athletic attire for the leadership reaction course.

9:15 AM Arrival to UNG-buses drop off at Hoag Student Center off W. Main Street

Campus Tours: 3 groups (72 students)

Group 1 (24 students)

Tour Start: Hoag Student Center Great Room
Group 2 (24 students)

Tour End: Hoag Student Center Great Room

Group 3 (24 students)

9:45 AM Welcoming Remarks & Schedule Review

Rose Procter

Hoag Auditorium, Hoag Student Center

10:00 AM Understanding your Ethical Self

10:20 AM Understanding Ethics: A Framework for Decision-Making and Communication

10:40 AM Defend Your Choice: A live debate around current Ethical Issues

Students will break into teams of 7-8 students. They will then decide on one leader from their team to represent them on stage for an ethical debate, where they will be divided into two competing teams. The winning teams will earn a free CFA Meal for all members of the teams they represent.

11:45 AM Students will get back on the buses and go to UNG Pine Valley Leadership Reaction

Course (7 mins from UNG Dahlonega campus)

LEADERSHIP REACTION COURSE:

12:00 PM Lunch, Chick-Fil-A (boxed lunches)

12:30PM Leadership Reaction Course (LRC)

Lead by UNG Senior Students

1:45 PM Wrap-up & Conclusion (UNG prize giveaways)

2:00PM Adjourn: Load Buses: Depart back to Hall County Schools

